
Overview

This unit is about establishing and correctly recording the vehicle value using vehicle identification and inspection methods

DRAFT

Performance criteria*You must be able to*

- P1. value vehicle in the latest edition of industry recognised vehicle valuation guide
- P2. establish correct mileage and option adjustments with the use of an appropriate evaluator tool (e.g. Glass's evaluator)
- P3. accurately assess vehicle pre-damage condition and establish appropriate condition adjustment to the valuation
- P4. establish vehicle value, taking into account:
 - P4.1. mileage
 - P4.2. options
 - P4.3. pre-damage condition
- P5. ensure appropriate care of the vehicle is taken throughout the vehicle damage assessment
- P6. accurately document valuation in format required by your organisation
- P7. establish and record all non-incident related damage

Knowledge and understanding

Legislative and organisational requirements and procedures

- K1. the legal requirements relating to the vehicle (including road safety requirements)
- K2. how to complete records conforming to workplace requirements specifically associated with the vehicle valuation function and the importance of doing so
- K3. contractual, policy and procedural obligations and processes between the employer, work provider and customer
- K4. the Association of British Insurers code of practice in relation to salvage categorisations
- K5. the effects of your actions on your organisation's performance and profitability
- K6. how to find, interpret and use sources of information to support a vehicle valuation
- K7. how to assess vehicle pre-damage value
- K8. the factors to consider when making adjustments to vehicle valuation

Developed by IMI

Version number 2

Date approved March 2026

Indicative review date March 2031

Validity Current

Status Original

Originating organisation IMI

Original URN IMIVDA04

Relevant occupations Vehicle Damage Assessor; Motor Engineer Assessor

Suite Vehicle Damage Assessment Operations

Key words Establish Record Motor Vehicle Valuation